- (3) The Settling Defendant shall make up to two (2) of its current employees, other than Robert Magee, available to provide written declarations or testimony at trial without subpoena as needed on five (5) days' notice to Counsel for the Settling Defendant for the sole purpose of authenticating the documents referenced in section 4.1(2).

(9) A material factor influencing the Settling Defendant's decision to execute this Settlement Agreement is its desire to limit the burden and expense of this litigation. Accordingly, Class Counsel agree to exercise good faith in seeking cooperation from the Settling Defendant and to avoid seeking information that is unnecessary, cumulative or duplicative and agree otherwise to avoid imposing undue or unreasonable burdens or expense on the Settling Defendant.

substantially the same degree as the draft Protective Order in the form attached as Schedule C or in a form otherwise satisfactory to the Settling Defendant. The Plaintiffs and Class Counsel shall consent to the Settling Defendant's motion.

(4) In the event that a Person applies for an order requiring the Plaintiffs to disclose or produce any documents or other information provided by the Settling Defendant as cooperation under this Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel shall notify the Settling Defendant of such application promptly upon becoming aware of it in order that the Settling Defendant may intervene to oppose such disclosure or production. 10. This Order, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the certification of the BC Proceedings against the Settling Defendant for settlement purposes pursuant to this Order, and the definitions of the BC Settlement Class, Settlement Class Period and Common Issue, is without prejudice to any position a Non-Settling Defendant may take in this or any other proceeding on any issue, including any issue of appropriate forum or abuse of process, the issue of whether the Settlement Agreement should be approved and the issue of whether the BC Proceedings should be certified as a class proceeding as against the Non-Settling Defendants. Except as set out below, no person may rely, cite or refer to all or any part of this Order or any reasons given by the Court in support of this Order as authority against any of the Non-Settling Defendants in this or any other proceeding. For greater certainty, this Order, the Court’s reasons in support of this Order and the certification of the BC Proceedings against the Settling Defendant for settlement purposes only are not binding and shall have no effect on this Court’s ruling in this or any other proceeding as against the Non-Settling Defendants. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Non-Settling Defendants may not rely, cite or refer to all or any part of this Order or any reasons given by the Court in support of this Order, and may not assert a deficiency in the notice plan set out in this Order and/or the unavailability of a further opt out opportunity as a basis for opposition to approval of the Settlement Agreement, including without limitation as a basis for opposition of the proposed bar order contained in the Settlement Agreement; and

11. This Order is contingent upon orders being made by the Ontario Court and the Quebec Court in the Proceedings in their jurisdictions that also provide for certification or authorization and notice in relation to the Settlement Agreement and the terms of this Order shall not be effective unless and until such orders are made.

THIS COURT ORDERS that:

2. The Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and in the best interests of the BC Settlement Class in each BC Proceeding;
3. The Settlement Agreement is approved pursuant to s. 35 of the Class Proceedings Act, RSBC 1996, c. 50 and shall be implemented in accordance with its terms;

This Order, including the Settlement Agreement, is binding upon the representative plaintiffs and each and every member of the BC Settlement Class in the BC Proceedings, including those Persons who are minors or mentally incapable, and the requirements of Rule 20-2 of the Supreme Court Civil Rules are dispensed with in respect of the BC Proceedings;

6. Upon the Effective Date, each member of the BC Settlement Class in each BC Proceeding shall consent and shall be deemed to have consented to the dismissal as against the Releasees of any Other Actions he, she or it has commenced, without costs and with prejudice;
7. Upon the Effective Date, any Other Action commenced in British Columbia by any member of the BC Settlement Class shall be and is hereby dismissed against the Releasees, without costs and with prejudice;
8. Instead of releasing the claims against the Releasees, upon the Effective Date, in accordance with Section 7.3(1) of the Settlement Agreement, each Releasor resident in British Columbia covenants not to sue and undertakes not to make any claim in any way nor to threaten, commence, or continue any proceeding in any jurisdiction against the Releasees in respect of or in relation to the Released Claims, except for the continuation of the Individual Action and the BC Proceedings against the Non-Settling Defendants or named or unnamed co-conspirators who are not Releasees. The use of the terms "Releasors", "Releasees" and "Released Claims" in this Order is a matter of form only for consistency with the Settlement Agreement;
9. Each Releasor shall not now or hereafter institute, continue, maintain or assert, either directly or indirectly, whether in Canada or elsewhere, on their own behalf or on behalf of any class or any other Person, any action, suit, cause of action, claim or demand against any Releasee or any other Person who may claim contribution or indemnity, or other claims over for relief, from any Releasee in respect of any Released Claim or any matter related thereto, except for the continuation of the Individual Action and the BC Proceedings against the Non-Settling Defendants or named or unnamed co-conspirators who are not Releasees;
10. All claims for contribution, indemnity or other claims over, whether asserted, unasserted or asserted in a representative capacity, inclusive of interest, taxes and costs, relating to the Released Claims, which were or could have been

- b. this Court shall have full authority to determine the Proportionate Liability of the Releasees at the trial or other disposition of the relevant BC Proceeding, whether or not the Releasees remain in the relevant BC Proceeding or appear at the trial or other disposition, and the Proportionate Liability of the Releasees shall be determined as if the Releasees are parties to the relevant BC Proceeding and any determination by this Court in respect of the Proportionate Liability of the Releasees shall only apply in the relevant BC Proceeding and shall not be binding on the Releasees in any other proceedings;

12.If, in the absence of paragraph 10 hereof, the Non-Settling Defendants would have the right to make claims for contribution and indemnity or other claims over, whether in equity or in law, by statute or otherwise, from or against the Releasees, then nothing in this Order is intended to or shall limit, restrict or effect any arguments which the Non-Settling Defendants may make regarding the reduction of any assessment of damages, restitutionary award, disgorgement of profits or judgment against them in the relevant BC Proceeding;

15. Notwithstanding any provision in this Order, on any application brought pursuant to paragraph 13, the Court may make such orders as to costs and other terms as it considers appropriate;
16. A Non-Settling Defendant may effect service of the application(s) referred to in paragraph 13 above on the Settling Defendant by service on counsel of record for the Settling Defendant in the relevant BC Proceeding;

THIS COURT ORDERS that:

TYPES OF MATERIALS WHICH MAY BE DESIGNATED CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

1. Any documents, including without limitation, any affidavits, exhibits, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admission, examination for discovery or cross-examination on affidavit testimony, transcripts of examination for discovery and exhibits, and any other material or information, produced in this litigation, including any such material initially produced in another litigation (hereinafter, collectively, "Materials"), may be designated by a producing party or non-party as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" in accordance with this Protective Order.

2. "Confidential Information" shall include any Materials which are not in the public domain and contain any trade secret or other confidential information, including but not limited to personal data, personnel records, confidential research and development information, or other non-public commercial information.

3. "Highly Confidential Information" shall include any Confidential Information which is so competitively sensitive that it is entitled to extraordinary protections, such as trade secrets or other highly sensitive confidential information the disclosure of which is reasonably likely to result in demonstrable harm to the producing party, including but not limited to financial information relating to costs, unpublished pricing information, or unpublished plans to buy or sell a business or business unit.

4. Any copies or reproductions, excerpts, summaries or other documents or media (e.g., electronic, video, or audio) that excerpt, contain, or otherwise reveal the substance of (other than in general terms) Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall also be treated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information pursuant to this Order.

DESIGNATION OF MATERIALS AS CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

5. Any Materials that are to be designated "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" may be so designated by the producing party or non-party by:

- (a) providing copies of the documents, material or information so designated that are stamped with the legend "CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER". Materials stamped or designated "CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER", including those produced in prior litigation bearing such stamp or designation or the designation "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY", "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" and subsequently made available in this action, shall be treated as Confidential or Highly Confidential, respectively, for the purposes of this Order; or
- (b) furnishing a separate written notice to counsel for the party receiving such documents, material or information at the time of their production or as soon thereafter as practicable specifically identifying the documents or materials as "Confidential," or "Highly Confidential," so long as the producing party supplies substitute copies (bearing the same bates numbers as the original copies, where practicable) of any such documents bearing the designations set forth in paragraph 5(a) within 10 days or as many days as the parties shall agree.

6. Notwithstanding any designation pursuant to paragraph 5 of this Order, any material initially designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential in prior litigation, which subsequently lost its designation pursuant to a court order, or was publicly filed in the prior litigation, shall be treated in this action consistent with its final status in the prior litigation.

7. To the extent a producing party makes documents available for inspection and copying at the producing party's or counsel's location prior to confidentiality designation of the documents, such materials shall be treated as Highly Confidential until such time as they are produced and assigned confidentiality designations in accordance with this Order.

8. If Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than in the manner authorized by this Order, the party responsible for the disclosure shall, immediately upon learning of such disclosure, inform the producing party or non-party of all pertinent facts relating to such disclosure and shall make every effort to retrieve the designated material and to prevent the occurrence of any further disclosure unauthorized by this Order.

9. Any Materials designated "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order. For purposes of this Order, a secure website, or other internet-based document depository with adequate security, shall be deemed a secure location.

10. Inadvertent production of or failure to designate any information as Confidential or Highly Confidential shall not be deemed a waiver of the producing party's or non-party's claim of confidentiality as to such information, and the producing party or non-party may thereafter designate such information as Confidential or Highly Confidential as appropriate.

11. Inadvertent production of any document produced in response to discovery requests in this action by any party or non-party, that a party or non-party later claims should have been withheld on grounds of a privilege, including the solicitor-client privilege and litigation privilege will not be deemed to waive any privilege or work product protection. Nothing in this Order shall preclude a party from arguing that the production of an allegedly inadvertently produced privileged document was not inadvertent or that conduct or circumstances constitute a waiver, except that, to the extent previously-produced documents were inadvertently produced and retracted in any prior litigation, the inadvertent reproduction of such documents in this case shall not be deemed a waiver of privilege.

12. The parties shall serve a copy of this Order simultaneously with any discovery request made to a non-party in this action.

PERMISSIBLE USES OF MATERIALS

13. All persons obtaining access to Materials produced in connection with this action shall use such Materials only for the purpose of the following actions, and not for any other purpose:

14. However, the terms of paragraph 13 shall not apply to any Materials subsequent to them becoming part of the public record in this action or in prior litigation. Nothing in this Order shall limit or restrict a party's rights, if any, to use its own Materials or any information obtained independent of discovery in this action in any manner that the party deems appropriate.

15. Nothing herein shall impose any restrictions on the use or disclosure by a party or witness of documents, material or information obtained by such party or witness independently of the discovery or other proceedings in this action, whether or not such documents, material or information are also obtained through discovery or other proceedings in this action.

EXAMINATION FOR DISCOVERY PROCEDURES

23. Subject to the terms of this Order and the British Columbia Supreme Court Civil Rules, any party may use Confidential Information in the course of an examination for discovery or cross-examination on affidavit or hearing provided that, prior to any examination of a witness with respect to such Confidential Information, the witness and court reporters are furnished with a copy of this Order and a copy of the confidentiality agreement set out in paragraph 20(c). Counsel for each party representing a witness at an examination for discovery or cross-examination on affidavit shall have responsibility for supplying this Order to that witness before the examination for discovery or cross-examination on affidavit and attempting to obtain their execution of the confidentiality agreement. Witnesses not represented by a party's counsel shall be provided with a copy of this Order at the start of the examination, shall be advised on the record that he or she is subject to sanctions for violating the terms of this. If a witness refuses to execute a copy of the confidentiality agreement, the admonition in the immediately preceding sentence shall serve as a substitute for the execution of the confidentiality agreement and shall be sufficient to allow examination of the witness as to Confidential Information.

24. A copy of this Order (including a copy of the confidentiality agreement) shall be included with each subpoena or appointment served on non-parties, and the subpoena or appointment shall state that this Order shall apply to all documents or other information produced in response to the subpoena or appointment.

CHALLENGES TO CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL DESIGNATIONS

28. If any party disagrees with the designation by the producing party or non-party of any Materials as Confidential or Highly Confidential Information, then the parties to the dispute, after providing notice to all parties in this action, will attempt first to resolve the dispute on an informal basis before presenting the dispute to the Court. All items objected to shall continue to be treated as Confidential or Highly Confidential pending resolution of the parties' dispute. If the dispute can be resolved, all parties shall promptly be informed of the resolution. If the dispute cannot be resolved informally, the disputing party may, within 30 days thereafter, or such other time period as to which the applicable persons have agreed in writing or pursuant to a court order, move the Court for a re-designation of the Materials. Until the Court rules on the motion, the Materials shall be treated consistent with their existing designation. The producing party or non-party bears the burden of persuading the Court that the information is in fact Confidential or Highly Confidential within the definition(s) or those term(s) set forth above. Materials shall not be entitled to a Confidential or Highly Confidential designation where the disputing party demonstrates that such Materials were in the public domain at the time of, or have become public since, their designation. Nothing in this Order precludes any party from challenging a confidentiality designation on any other ground.

29. Entering into, agreeing to, and/or complying with the terms of this Order shall not:

- (a) operate as an admission by any party that any particular documents, material or information contain or reflect currently valuable trade secrets or proprietary or commercial information; or

  - (i) to seek a determination by the Court of whether any particular document, item of material or piece of information should be subject to the terms of this Order;
  - (ii) to seek relief on appropriate notice from any provision(s) of this Order, either generally or as to any particular document, item of material or piece of information;
  - (iii) to object to any discovery request, including the right to assert that no discovery shall be had of certain documents or information;
  - (iv) to seek a higher level of protection than provided for by this Order if the party believes that new and unique circumstances warrant that higher level of protection; or
  - (v) to seek documents or other information from any source.

30. In any instance where a producing party asserts a higher level of protection to discovery material after its initial production, the higher protection level shall apply to the materials only as of the time of their re-designation. Persons who obtain access to such materials prior to their re-designation shall, from the time of notice to them of the materials' re-designation, restrict their review or use of those materials in accordance with the higher protection level.

EFFORTS BY NON-PARTIES TO OBTAIN CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

31. If any party has obtained Confidential or Highly Confidential Information under the terms of this Order and receives a subpoena or other compulsory process commanding the production of such Confidential or Highly Confidential Information, such party shall notify the producing party or non-party no later than seven (7) days following receipt of the subpoena (but in no event later than seven (7) days prior to compliance with the subpoena), including in such notice the date set for the production of such subpoenaed information, so that the producing party may file a motion for a protective order or to quash the subpoena. In the event the producing party files such a motion, the subpoenaed party shall not produce any Confidential or Highly Confidential Information in response to the subpoena without the prior written consent of the producing party or non-party unless in response to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or unless a failure to produce such Confidential or Highly Confidential Information would, in the judgment of the subpoenaed party, constitute a violation of any law, rule or regulation.

32. The parties will not object to the producing party or non-party having a reasonable opportunity to appear in the litigation or process commanding disclosure of such Confidential or Highly Confidential Information for the sole purpose of seeking to prevent or restrict disclosure thereof.

PROCEDURES CONCERNING THIRD PARTY MATERIALS

33. To the extent a party to this action is required to produce Materials that were initially produced in prior litigation, or which otherwise contain information supplied by a non-party to this action, or which are covered by a nondisclosure agreement pursuant to which consent to production must be obtained ("Third-Party Materials"), and notice must be given prior to production in this action of such Third-Party Materials, the producing party must, within 20 days of becoming aware that a discovery request hereinafter served seeks production of Third Party Materials, initiate the steps necessary to comply with any pre-production notice requirements imposed by any protective order in a prior litigation and/or any other notice obligations ("Third-Party Notice Requirements"). Upon satisfaction of its Third-Party Notice Requirements and resolution of any objections to the production of the Third Party Materials in this action, the producing party shall promptly re-produce such Third-Party Materials. The Parties reserve all rights to invoke this Court's jurisdiction in this litigation to resolve any issues relating to third parties' rights in the production of this material.

34. In the event a producing party inadvertently produces Third-Party Materials without first complying with any Third-Party Notice Requirements ("Inadvertently Produced Third-Party Materials"), the producing party may request the return of the Inadvertently Produced Third-Party Materials, and the possessing parties shall within five business days return or destroy such Inadvertently Produced Third-Party Materials, except that, in the event a possessing party expects to move for an order allowing continued retention and use of the recalled Inadvertently Produced Third-Party Materials, the possessing party may retain one copy of such materials, solely for use in connection with such a motion. Promptly after discovering its production of Inadvertently Produced Third-Party Materials, the producing party shall comply with any applicable Third-Party Notice Requirements.

FILING UNDER SEAL

35. All Confidential or Highly Confidential Information filed with the Court shall be filed under seal in accordance with British Columbia Supreme Court Practice Direction PD-35.

USE OF CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AT HEARINGS AND TRIAL

36. In the event that any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information is used in any pre-trial court hearing or proceeding in this action, and there is any dispute as to whether such material continues to be Confidential or Highly Confidential, the parties will meet and confer to resolve such dispute.

37. The parties shall confer and attempt to agree before any trial or other hearing on the procedures under which Confidential or Highly Confidential Information may be introduced into evidence or otherwise used at such trial or hearing. Upon reaching agreement, the parties shall give notice of the terms of such agreement to each non-party producing any Confidential or Highly Confidential Information which may be used or introduced at such trial or hearing. Absent agreement, the Court shall be asked to issue an order governing the use of such Confidential and Highly Confidential Information at trial or hearing upon reasonable notice to all parties and non-parties who have produced such information.

PROCEDURES UPON TERMINATION OF ACTION

38. After the running of any applicable time to appeal the final order entered in this litigation, any producing party or non-party may request that a party return or destroy any Materials the producing party or non-party has provided (other than outside counsel's copies of documents filed with the Court, outside counsel's file copies of papers prepared in connection with this matter and any Materials that experts or consultants are required by statutory or regulatory requirements to retain), which request shall be honored. If the possessing party elects to destroy the Materials rather than return them, the possessing party shall provide the producing party written certification that the destruction has been completed.

39. Nothing in paragraph 37 shall limit the rights, if any, of any party or non-party to object to and seek a ruling of the Court concerning a party's retention of any Materials.

40. To the extent any person retains copies of certain documents after the termination of this action, for any reason, such information shall continue to be subject to the protections provided by this Order. In addition, all restrictions in this Order regarding the use by any person of information or knowledge obtained from Materials shall continue even after such Materials are returned or destroyed.

41. After dismissal or entry of final judgment not subject to further appeal, the Court clerk or registrar may elect to return to counsel for the parties, or after notice, destroy documents filed or offered at trial under seal or otherwise restricted by the Court as to disclosure.

42. Notwithstanding paragraph 37, counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence and all lawyer work product, even if such Materials contain Confidential Information. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Confidential Information remain subject to this Protective Order. In addition, counsel may retain lawyer work product, including an index which refers or relates to Materials, so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim substantial portions of the text or images of the Material. This work product shall remain subject to this Protective Order.

MISCELLANEOUS
